To Find eBooks:

- Search the entire collection using Boolean logic - the best way to start searching is to do a basic search by Keyword.
- Try the Advanced Search option – you can search by Format, Publisher, Language, etc.
- Explore other types of eContent by browsing "In Our Collection"
- Questions? You can access the NetLibrary 'Help' section on this main screen by clicking "Learn More..."

To Find and Download eAudiobooks:

- Browse by Subject or Search by Keyword, Title, Narrator, or Author
- Click 'Download this eAudiobook'
- Click "Check Out and Download CD Quality" (CD quality is required for transfer to portable device)
- Open the file in your media player to acquire a license to play the eAudiobook on your computer
- Questions about transferring to a portable device? Visit <http://www.oclc.org/services/brochure/s/goingportable.pdf> for more detailed information

NetLibrary : Pricing and Ordering

To purchase NetLibrary eBooks and eAudiobooks, you can visit TitleSelect, our online bookstore, at www.NetLibrary.com/titleselect. Or, you can work with your sales representative to create a custom collection for your library. We look forward to helping you meet your library's eContent needs!

Best Regards,
